

The Oberoi

LOMBOK, INDONESIA

The Indonesian island of Lombok presents a picture of serenity with its white sand beaches, shimmering turquoise waters and dense green forests. An enchanting journey through winding mountain roads descends into the paradise resort of The Oberoi. Located on pristine Medana Beach, the resort is a secluded cluster of villas and pavilions set amid lush tropical gardens to create an idyllic retreat.

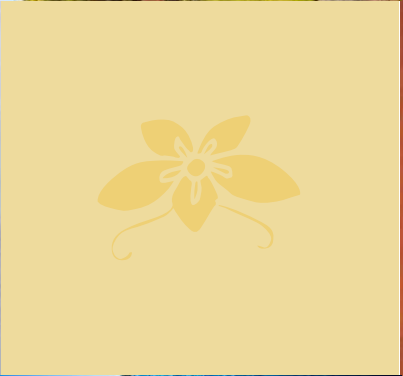

The main swimming pool, mirrored by two reflection ponds, gives the illusion of the sea meeting the reception area

The reception area pays homage to Lombok's Sasak culture and overlooks to the reflection pools flanked by shady bale's for lounging by day, or romantic dinners in the evening

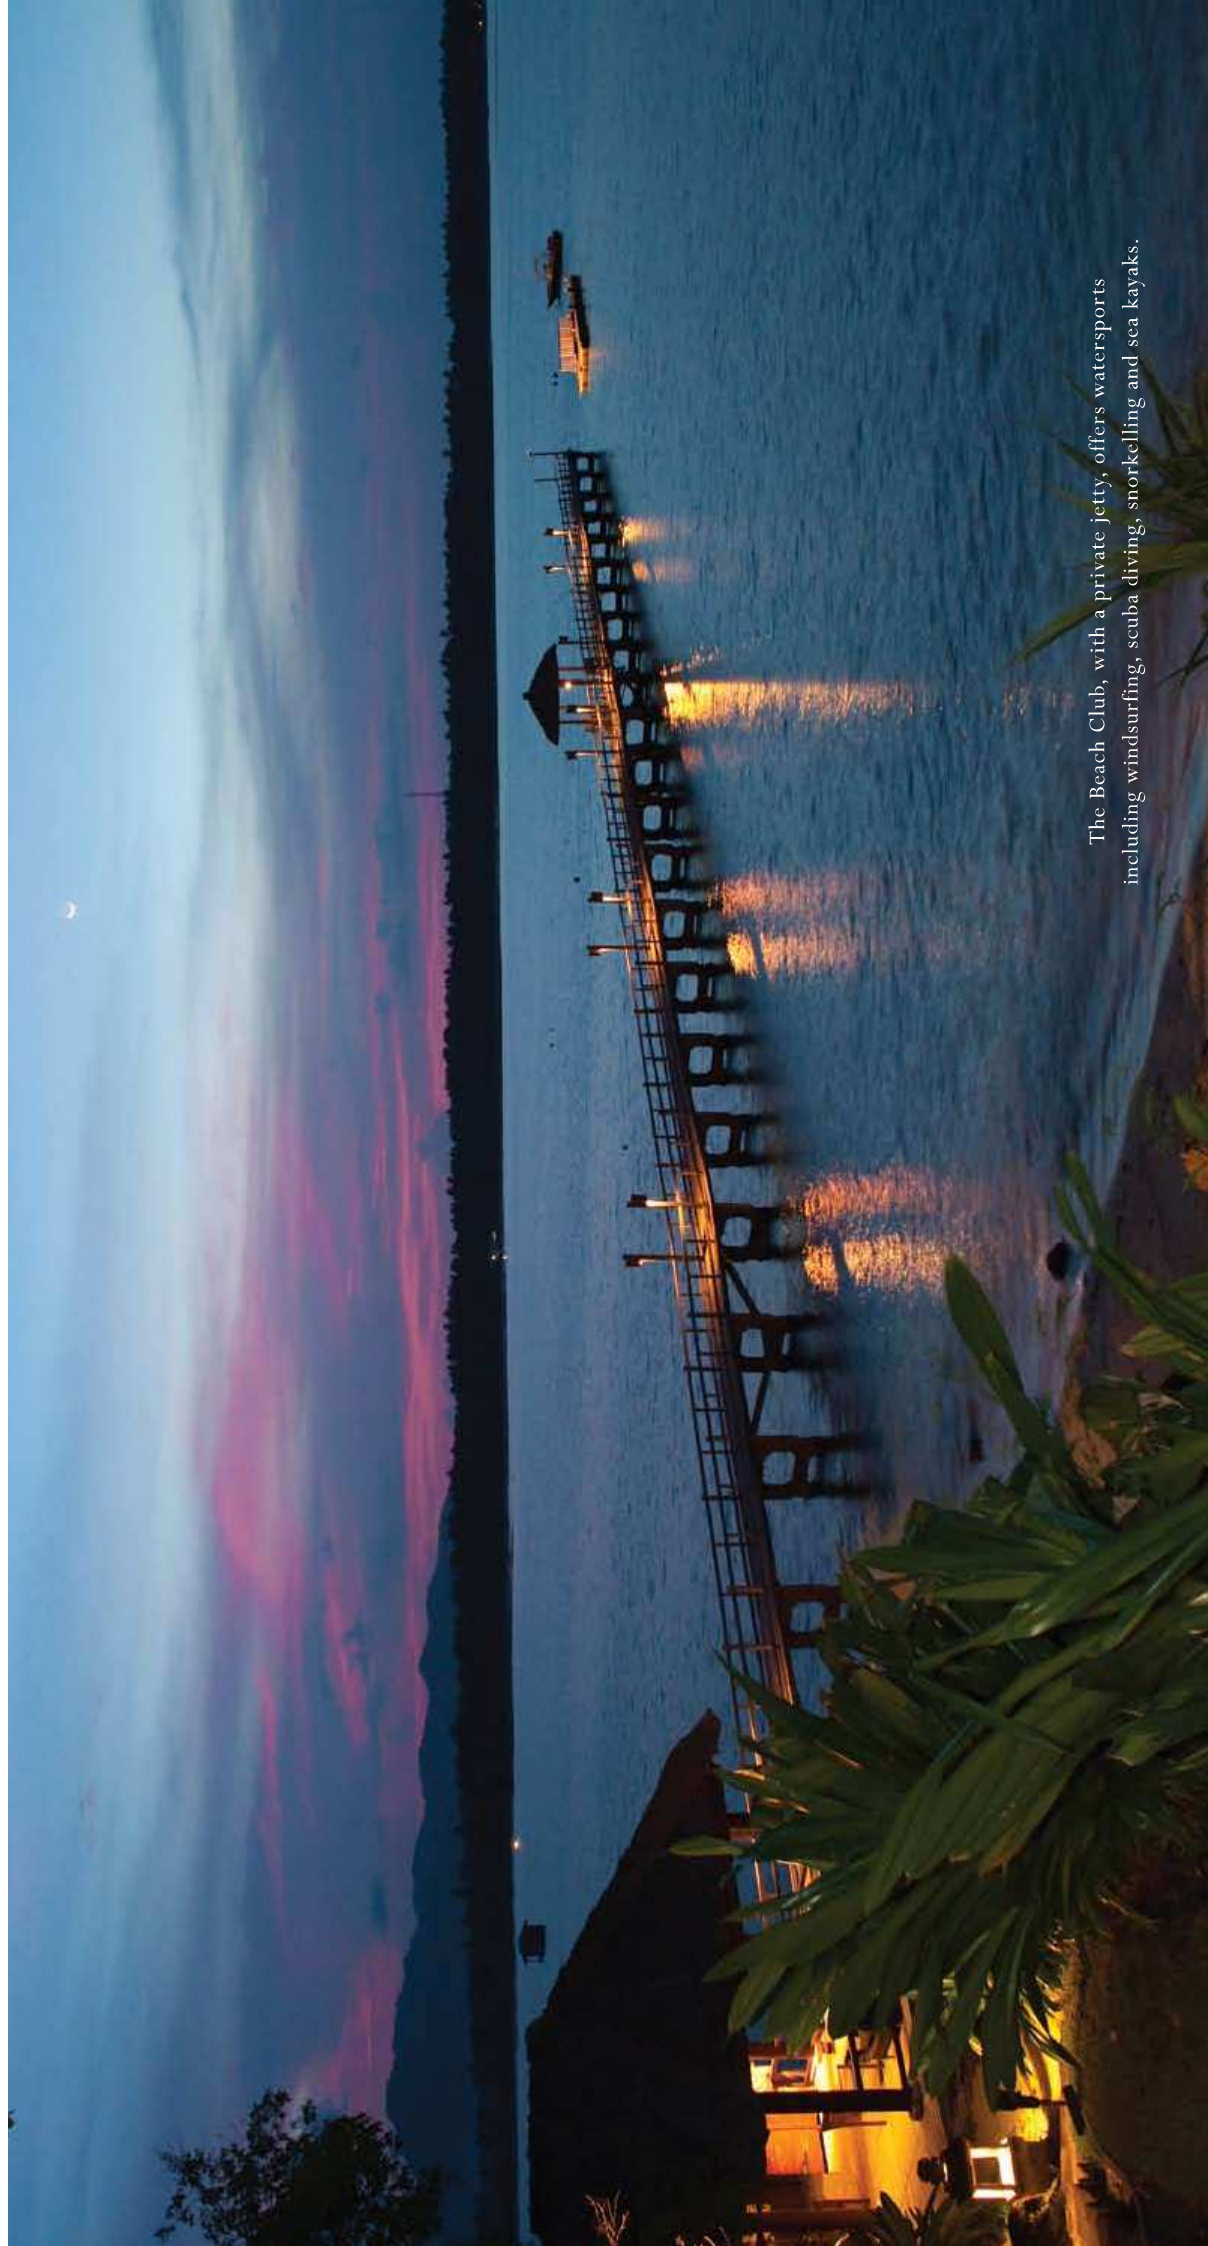

Luxury Pavilion Ocean View

Spacious interiors are exoically appointed with traditional crafts to make each villa and pavilion a lavish retreat

The Beach Club, with a private jetty, offers watersports including windsurfing, scuba diving, snorkelling and sea kayaks.

Spacious interiors are exotically appointed with traditional crafts to make each villa and pavilion a lavish retreat

At the beautifully appointed spa, let your self be pampered with rejuvenating massages and therapies based on Ayurveda and ancient Eastern techniques.

Explore coral reefs and colourful marine life at the nearby Gili islands, trek the slopes of the majestic Rinjani volcano or simply soak in the luxury of the resort.

At The Oberoi, Lombok, the gracious hospitality of a culture that is centuries old combines with the alluring beauty of nature to create magical memories.
